

Defense Strategy Class #1 (October 22, 2011)

We are raining White-Light on people; they will be very tired. This White Light is very potent, it will open you up to this experience, and we will be removing Darkness that came in with you. And we will be using this Darkness as examples for Inner Beingnesses (IB's).

They have gathered the IB's together and they are training them. They are showing me an image of the Rope of Defense – it is really long. Joyelle says it is almost as long as this room. These Ropes will be lengthened as required. They are not one length, but almost endless.

This IB will show you how the Rope is told to lengthen. He talks to the Rope. He is flickering the end of the Rope. They are showing me how the molecules are dissipating the molecules at the end and along the length of Rope. The energy emits from the length of the Rope. It feels like the Rope changes the frequency of the air around it. Yes. He's also showing how his body goes into sync with the Rope - now look at the Rope and his energy – they are aligned. They are also directing me to look at how he is connected to the Divine and the whole length (of Rope and IB) comes into oneness. The energy comes from the Divine and returns to Him. IB says, we are one.

Containing Darkness

They are looking towards another group of IB's. They are doing something with another form of Darkness. This form of Darkness looks all balled up. Joyelle says, it is corralled, and it is balled up because of the energy around it. So all the energy around it – it can't move then. It is corralled. The energy is emitted from all IB and that is how it will keep it contained for Love to transmute it. And Love will transmute Darkness.

It feels like there are many, many other IB's here. Joyelle says, there are more than you can count. Many are here and listening. One IB says, we were on the hub, the Network of communication that they set up. We were listening so we came to class. All IB's are listening. The Network is connecting them.

Is there something they want us to know about this form of Darkness? This form of Darkness is new. It is very, very sticky - will hold Outer Consciousness (OC). It feels thicker than usual. This form of Darkness is shrinking quite quickly. Now look at the next group of IB's. This form of Darkness looks balled up too – IB says, we do this. I don't see the Rope – are they doing something different tonight? Yes. It looks like they are concentrating on different parts of their body. They are using their body energy to contain Darkness. This way is very effective on Darkness that comes to the Earth Plane.

It feels like they are using everything – everything of themselves, every aspect. When Darkness comes to the Earth Plane, IB's will use this to help OC. This is a denser form of Darkness.

IB have been working very hard on new methods to contain Darkness. This is very dense Darkness. They will corral this Darkness in a different way. Not with ropes or body energy, but with energy they receive from another source – from the other people that are in this battle against Darkness. They are showing all over how – there are connections between IB's, and all others that will be part of the battle – they form an immense network, and they can ask for more energy in this way. All is connected to the Divine. The Divine Lines are now linked.

There's many new ways of using energy. IB's have created many other things to contain Darkness. They are showing me a net. There is another form – it looks like a barrier. It's invisible and as long as needed. It is invisible to Darkness.

It feels like they have some areas where they bait Darkness – like they are inviting Darkness. They have created many ways to draw Darkness to them. One way is to mimic the energy forms that Darkness prefers. Darkness is drawn to certain energy forms. To have Darkness come to be transmuted, IB's will mimic these energy forms. I see dark patches, and I feel like there are dark patches in there. And it feels like if Darkness were to come close, they would spring out. There are many like, pitfalls. Joyelle agrees that they are energy traps to attract Darkness. One IB's says, we want to keep Darkness away from people. Some of these energy forms are very bad. Joyelle says the IB's will keep Darkness away from the people during the battle.

Pearl's Inner Beingness Speaks – Outer Consciousness Must Engage

She says there is a massive preparation taking place on a global scale. All IB's are engaged. Joyelle says, Yes. You can feel this flurry of activity around you. When you go out, feel the air. Sense the commotion, it's almost like a disturbance from normal. Again she says that a massive amount of work is being done in this Non-form Reality. She says to pick up on this, don't attribute it to other things. Feel this commotion. It is significant.

Joyelle is saying, engage in what is happening. Be part of it, do not dismiss it. Know that this is taking place. Then there is a cognition about all that is happening and that cognition translates onto the earth plane as knowingness. Feel the energy, commotion and disturbance, like a massive activity. IB's are all engaged and OC needs to be too. This is very important to keep this knowingness. Joyelle says, do Not go into denial. As OC, this pocket of knowingness will also spread, like how IB's have gotten onto the network and have been sharing information and knowledge about the battle with Darkness. You as OC can do the same.

Think differently about yourself. When you know yourself as energy beings then your knowingness in the way you are in the world, this energy comes forward. It may not be in spoken words, but this is shared knowingness with others around the globe. You also as OC are part of a network, part of global consciousness to engage with what is taking place and you will share this knowingness with OC all over the world. Be the starting point for acceptance of what is occurring. Let this true knowing go forward in the network of global consciousness. Do not hinder or restrict this knowing. Let it flow from you. Let it flow as you walk, even as you speak and not necessarily about this, but in the whole presence of you and the presentation of you. Let it be part of your knowingness. That will help spread the word so to speak in the global network of OC.

More will be spoken about this global network of OC later in another class but know that your knowingness makes a difference. People reading the message board makes a difference. It tweaks something inside. It comes closer to what IB's know. All this makes a difference. The world changes when we share knowingness together. Let the word spread internally, just by being with what you know already. This is very important. It's like not shutting down a faucet of what you know of. Like a facet of your True existence. Let this knowingness spread and come forward.

Energetic Communications

Other OC's around the world need to be aware also. Tell others about the message board. Let them read about the classes. It will touch something inside them. This knowledge is very important to be spread. This is an energetic way of sharing knowledge in truth. You understand this somewhere inside you. It is your knowingness of who you truly are. This makes sense. It is from a True way of being. It is like whispering the undercurrent of what is taking place, to others. That replaces the reality of what they know. This subtext of what is taking place speaks volumes. This knowing is very profound.

Let the connections between you and those that you know, help spread the word. The message board is one level. Internally, just being present in presence with what you know, that speaks much also. It is like another frequency of communication. Like an energy frequency. Like knowledge traveling along a different channel. This is your capacity as beings of energy. When you tune-in in truth, to what you know, that allows others to tune in also. Feel this frequency of knowing, let yourselves be conveyors of this channel of knowing. This channel is far reaching. It is not limited to your encounters with people themselves. Your way of being present with what you know, transmits. Understand this from a place of fineness within, from a place of knowing your True energy nature.

You all have the capacity to do this. We are asking you to do this now. Some are in denial about what is taking place. Simply be with them in a True way of being present with what you know. As IB conveys information to OC and OC transmits in its own network, that changes the awareness and knowingness across the Earth Plane. Know that this is possible. Do not dim or turn down or turn off this channel that naturally flows from true OC. It is a very powerful form of communication.

This is your capacity to transmit and share in truth with others around you, and much further away than you realize. It is like you are walking transmitters. You have just not realized the power that you have to share information and True knowledge in this way. All is conveyed in truth. You are all connected. As you go about your day, realize your connection with one another and with the Divine, without trying, by just being present with what you know. And that transmits truth across the globe. People will pick up on this. Realize this is your capacity and True nature.

You feel this already in the room. What Pearl says to you, it is like the knowledge is already present because it is already here. Your IB's know what is taking place. IB's across the globe know this also. We just need to get OC up to speed. You can help in this by simply being present in truth with what you know - love being in service in this way. It is more powerful than you realize. No one has asked you to do this before in this way but we are asking now. Soon, those who deny this can no longer turn away from what is True, from what is happening. You are energy beings. You are sharing knowledge, even here from this room just by being present in Truth, just by resting in what you know. There is no time, just being present.

(Silence for a while....)

How does darkness feel or when we say it gets transmuted, where does it get transmuted into?

Joyelle: first of all, we recommend that Darkness gets transmuted into a higher energy form and in this new form, it is very content.

Joyelle is saying we are all done.

Questions and Answers:

On a global level what's the difference with IB's that know what is taking place and OC that doesn't?

Joyelle: First of all the IB's in this room are teaching other IB's. Then the OC's in this room must now pass the message on so that all OC's will know. And you are the starting point.

I talk to OC's and I haven't been able to convince anyone.

Joyelle: Internally is OK in this process. And knowing what you know, is being passed along.

Comment about protesting taking place around globe.

Joyelle: When OC takes this bold of a step, it is part of the changes that will come.

Pearl: to follow up on her comment, is that like OC is picking up on this unease and like what they know is deeply wrong. And it may come out as a protest. That's different, but it's from a knowing.

Joyelle: Yes very much so.

When something very small is done in Truth, does it have a very big affect here?

Joyelle: when something of truth is done on the Earth Plane, however small, it goes throughout the Universe. Yes like in doing this.

Joyelle says, We are done.

We closed with a prayer of thanks to the Divine.
