

Energy Strategy Class #3 – Nov 6, 2011

Energy Trails

Inner Beingness (IB) is ready to show us something. IB is doing something very, very different. It's almost like there's a twirling motion. Joyelle says, Feel the energy trail that he is creating. When you feel the energy trail that this IB is creating, it feels like you drop. Joyelle says, This energy trail will entice Darkness to follow and it drops because of low vibration. And Darkness will follow lower vibrations and will not like to follow higher vibrations. They will create trails on the Earth Plane for Darkness to follow. It is like herding Darkness, and then it will be transmuted.

There's still more to discover about this energy. Joyelle says, Yes, we invite you to follow it with IB. In this place where the trail left to, it's a place where there's other forms of Darkness being transmuted. Joyelle confirms. It's like these I don't know, secret places, away from unnecessary eyes. Joyelle calls them holding places. Darkness while it's there, is very unaware. Almost like they have no sense of where they are. Joyelle agrees.

So it's like kind treatment. There's no panic, there's no fear, they're just there. Joyelle says, This Darkness likes to settle in in places, so it thinks that it's doing this. IB says, See its limited understanding. It's like it knows a few key things and then the rest it's not aware of. This is the nature of Darkness. It is drawn, as Joyelle said, to lower vibration. That's why it's attracted to ego. That's how they layer inside and catch us, trap us. Darkness is often very uni-functional. This one settles in, and thinks that that is all there is to do because that's their makeup, what they're programmed to do. Very, very simplistic. If you understand the way they think or know, you can see that they're very limited in their understanding of what we do, who we are, with the process of human existence. So they see IB as interference. They feel our higher vibration, so they come between us and Outer Consciousness. That's how simplistic their thinking is, or their way of knowing. It's not really thinking – very, very basic. Like elementary pathways of thought.

The Divine Allows Darkness to Evolve

That's why when Darkness is transmuted into a higher energy form, they will have an opportunity to become more. The Divine has gifted this to them. The Divine has allowed them to evolve so to speak. So he's talking about the Divine. Since the Divine is incapable of hurting anything, because he creates in love. So this is an opportunity for Darkness to evolve and grow. This is discussed in another class – how Darkness that is transmuted will be sent to other places. Planets and stars where they will be allowed to mature and grow as this new form of Darkness in a higher energy form. And because this new form of Darkness in a higher energy form is being nurtured by the Universe, its energy lines are no longer to the eye of Darkness and it's like a new start for them. Such is the generosity of the Divine.

Darkness is Transmuted Into a Higher Consciousness

They're showing me an image of Darkness in its new form and it looks kind of grey – a grey floating thing, and Darkness in its regular form. What more do they want to show about this? Joyelle says, Just the vibration level. So the old form of Darkness is very, very dense. It almost feels like form itself. Whereas the newer form of Darkness is softer in appearance, in its form. Like if you were to touch it, it's almost like touching a Kleenex, it's very movable, whereas the old form doesn't give much. So they will have an opportunity to grow and the Universe will look out for them. It has all been arranged, all been set up by the Divine in coordination with the other planets.

IB says, see how loving the Divine is. He does not destroy, but gives others an opportunity – like human beings and OC that is in ego. He gives all an opportunity to evolve and be of a higher vibration. This is the nature and way of the Divine. That is why there is so much interest in this battle from other people around the Universe – because the Divine's way is very special. He's all knowing and all forgiving. He saw long ago that this was an opportunity to allow Darkness to grow. Even in the midst of what was taking place on the Earth Plane itself, and much harm was done, he made a plan long ago to use this as an opportunity for beings on the Earth Plane to mature, grow and evolve. It is all the same. This way of allowing OC that has come into form, the free will to return and grow from what it was. This is the special nature and capacity of Divine wisdom – that is how inclusive it is. That is how forgiving and loving the Divine is.

The Divine is Not the Creator of Darkness

We are fortunate to be created by the Divine. This is the opportunity that He foresaw long ago - the opportunity to grow and to unify. Unify in relationship with other planets, stars, and star groupings. Many others are watching and many others are considering their role and partnership in this bigger union with the Divine. For us to come here, we needed to understand what Darkness truly was. There needed to be like a focal point from OC - even a small grouping of people that understood what Darkness is. The Divine did not create Darkness as some have mistakenly learned. These teachings are not in Truth. It is only that those that thought them, did not truly understand the nature of Darkness. The balance that one thinks, of light and dark, is not a so-called balance of the Divine's making. The Divine creates in utter perfection.

In the setting that we have been in, that seems a little bit foreign because we've come to expect the negative as part of the positive in some way. This is not of the Divine's making. Can you imagine he says? – a good Angel next to an angry Angel. That doesn't make any sense. And it is the same for the people, for the humans. So he could not create one level of the Divine Realm in perfection and then have it flawed at another – that is not the Divine's way. Those are teachings from those who misunderstood what Darkness was. The Divine only creates in perfection.

Misunderstandings About Darkness

It is in the generosity of givingness, of the Divine to not destroy Darkness, but to give it a chance to grow. Think of yourselves and the times that you have come through, and how you have learned from darker times in your life. There is growth there, and there can be much understanding and evolving of consciousness this way. So all is consistent with the Divine's way. The Divine did not create in imperfection. Always in perfection. We want people to understand this, because it's the true foundation from which other Truth can arise. If this part is not understood, then the other teachings that are of the Divine do not fall into place easily and have difficulty making sense. Many mis-teachings, and that is part of the reason why Darkness has been allowed to come in such numbers to the Earth Plane.

If it is accepted as norm, then we create the constructs and the words, and even incorporate it as some kind of flawed balance system. All that teaching needs to be uprooted, for this is not the way of the Divine. To hurt people, to cause them pain, to deceive and separate them from their source, to separate them from the Divine Himself – the Divine would not do this. It is completely counter to all His teachings. People must understand that. Envision only perfection from within and in conjunction with the Divine Realm, like in relationship with the Divine realm, and all that is created by the Divine.

The Divine's Masterpiece – the Earth Plane

The ego creating the way that it has, without Darkness, would not have created such havoc and destruction on the Earth Plane. With the help of Darkness, the ego went in one direction away from the Divine, and hurt themselves and the Earth Plane very severely. The Divine would not have wanted this. The Divine's love is in all His patience. The Earth Plane is like a masterpiece. Joyelle says, Yes. See it in its utter perfection – the love from Mother Earth to Father Sky, and all creatures in between. Magnificent. Absolute perfection. This is the Divine's way.

With so much in Truth, with so much that follows the Divine, one who turns momentarily away from connection would soon feel drawn and compelled to return, because there's so much love. And all beings love Love. It would have been like temporary, slight, like minor – not this long lasting chaos and destruction. The Divine does not create in order to help destroy this beautiful masterpiece, and the humans that he loves and cherishes so much. He would not do this. Everyone must understand this. Let all previous lessons go. Learn only from your IB and know that this knowledge is in keeping with your IB and the perfect creator, the Divine.

New Relationships with Other Beings

With this battle, and the ensuing battle and the ensuing chaos on the Earth Plane, this work will allow or fortify OC so that we're prepared to be with others in the Universe. This is the next step forward – unions beyond the borders of the Earth Plane. This is where we are going together. We needed to take this leap of growth in order to be with others, in order to lighten our form. Many eyes are upon us, and as this picture unfolds, we will be able to share more with you so that you may understand why this battle needed to take place, and all the learning and growing that will follow. We are children of the Divine, pure and perfect. Know this through and through. Stay with us, stay with the Divine's teachings, and we will all step out together from where we were. This is an amazing time. Then IB bows.

Global Information

I think they're going back to a picture of IB's that they showed yesterday actually, where IB looks like they are preparing something. Joyelle says, Yes, they are preparing for the future. They are preparing for after the battle. Much teaching will have to be given. So that image of IB putting something aside, what is that? Joyelle says, Look at what he's putting aside. It looks like a globe, something that you can see through? Joyelle says, It's like the globe of the present to be put aside. There's a new globe of the future to look into. So the first globe – it felt cloudy, like you just know that there's something inside it, and the new one is clear. Joyelle says, The cloudy is all past, pain and suffering.

Another IB says, Take heart folks, we get to be in a new time. IB's are very excited though. Joyelle says, It's like a new beginning. IB says, The Divine sees far in advance – he sees the future unlike we do. He sees the many different lines of the future and he knows this one will come to fruition. He knows the future by the second? Joyelle says, Yes. He knows how the battle will shape up and turn out. All is known, All is seen. Joyelle says, Many elements change the future, but the Divine is the master of seeing the consequences of each event. One event counteracts another and the Divine sees far ahead of each game play, so to speak. So is it like IB's are putting their past globes aside? Joyelle says, Yes. What are the globes? Joyelle says, The globes are like computers to you. Because IB's feel everything that we do as OC, I can only sense how happy they must be to take part in this battle for the future and for what will be.

Future Relationships With Other Beings

So we're high above in the Universe somewhere – that's the image. Joyelle says, Yes I see a very, very, light dusting of something, a trail of light. Joyelle says, It's like stardust. Follow this trail of stardust. Is this a planet? Joyelle says, Yes. IB says, More than one planet. Are we supposed to notice something about this one? Joyelle says, Yes, she wants you to go there. Okay, so I'm descending, descending into the atmosphere. Is this the future? Joyelle says, A new Being will come to see you. Everything is white. It's like buildings are white. Everything is white. Joyelle says, It is like being in the future, like what the future will be, but it is now. What am I supposed to do with this Being? Joyelle says, Talk with him. So this is the future of possibilities? Joyelle says, Yes, she calls it the Future Now. So what he does is he waves his hand, and then you can just see in the distance.

I know he's showing time. Joyelle say, Yes. So it just goes endless, and you feel peace, light, business, much life. Teeming life, if you look a little deeper. There is so much love. There's just love everywhere. And he says, we will be part of your future too. Sorry, my thought just went, will we be able to travel like this? And he said, not yet. I know often the Angels escort us when we go places. But he does say true OC can travel more easily. He is very kindly. Am I not supposed to describe him? Joyelle says, He will not mind. Okay. I feel it's okay, but I didn't want to worry people.

Well, he feels like a male, and it's not human looking. He kind of has a tail, but he's very kind – you can feel his kindness. Joyelle says, Yes. He's very wise and he feels like the perfect person if you arrived in a city – , who'd come and escort you, you know to give you a tour. His eyes are really deep, dark and wise. As for his body, he has limbs. Joyelle says, Yes. I don't want to say it like this – maybe you can help. How else could you describe him Joyelle, to OC? Joyelle says, Like an alligator. He's like a standing alligator.

It's like he has a jacket on or something, because I want to touch him. I'm very curious. Joyelle says, Yes, actually he does, like clothing. IB says, You'll be meeting many, many, different kinds of people, beings, and you will love it, and it will change who you are. It will change the way you think about yourselves and others. It will open everything up. What's that expression he's making? Joyelle says, It's one of love and friendship. It's a funny smile. That's because I was checking him out. Thank you. Thank you for showing us this. Joyelle says, we recommend that he will allow this, but ask first. I'm just looking, but it feels like touching. He just kind of laughs when I ask, and so I should be careful. Sometimes, just by looking you're like touching right? Joyelle says, Yes.

But he's allowing. He's like – I've never touched an animal skin, but it feels almost like if you were to feel a dinosaur skin, that it might be like that somewhat. Crocodile's are very bumpy, but I wouldn't say that. He's skin is smoother and there's a green tinge to it. I don't know, it's just kindness. That's why I've been tempted to see what he's like, because he's very kind. And he shows me where he's from. He shows me Earth here and far, far, in the distance, you see many other planets and stars along the way. But he's really from far away isn't he? Joyelle says, Yes. He says in time, you will learn to travel differently – as consciousness more. I'm trying to figure out what the setting is here. Is this is the future now? – Does she means the future that will come to be because of the current present. Joyelle says, Yes.

The Centre of Travel and Information Exchange

So I was asking him if this is us or this is us together. It feels like a place where many different beings are coming to. Joyelle says, Yes. Almost like a trade center. Joyelle says, Yes. Joyelle says, It's like a forum. I was trying to understand if it's our future, why they are showing this, and why this being would be showing this. So it must be something of a combination. Joyelle says, Many beings will come to this place to learn from each other. It just feels like so much hustle and bustle. That's why I may have misinterpreted the trade center. It just feels like a big exchange taking place. Joyelle says, Yes. He says that humans are newcomers to this kind of exchange. Joyelle says, Yes. He said this has been taking place for a long time. Joyelle says, The future now. So it's probably happening now but we're going to be doing this in the future. He's taking me in amongst the beings? Joyelle says, Yes. It's all energy. They look like they're not doing anything, but it's just all communication, all energy. Joyelle says, It's non verbal communication.

It just feels like you're walking through a forum of beings and you can just feel the communication exchange held all around you, and yet it's all quiet. He says, It's like hummers of a different kind. Joyelle says, You will learn how to do this, how to communicate like this. He says things you have dreamed of, things you have known were in the realm of possibility, they can become real. You are energy beings. You are not confined to form – only your way of being has restricted this. So now we're leaving and coming back.

Joyelle says, We are done.

Questions and Answers:

Is it possible to bring Darkness while you sleep?

Joyelle: Darkness comes to people during sleep time and it appears as nightmares. And I just want to make sure that people, when they have nightmares, they know what to do.

Joyelle: When one is in a nightmare, call upon the Divine for help.

I just wanted to ask Joyelle a question about time. I wasn't sure if I can ask.

Joyelle: Yes you may ask it.

Just in general, about time lines. Is there like multiple times experiencing at the same time? Like we experience that there is only one time but is it true that there is multiple times happening at the same time.

Joyelle: We recommend that there are multiple dimensions at the same time.

So we as Outer Consciousness, do we exist in these other dimensions at the same time?

Joyelle : You as OC, do exist in one more dimension at the same time.

A: And Joyelle says we are all done.

The evening was concluded with a prayer of gratitude to the Divine.
